MEMBERS

3.1 Admission to Membership. Admission to Membership shall be by action of the Officers upon submission of an application for Membership which shall be in writing and in such manner and form as prescribed by the Officers and accompanied by all requisite dues, fees, or other charges. Action taken on the application may include but shall not be limited to admission to full Membership status or denial of the application. The decision rendered to the prospective Member shall be in writing and shall be final.

3.2 Eligibility for Membership. Membership in the Corporation shall be limited to individuals of good character and reputation in the community who demonstrate willingness to promote amateur golf. The Corporation and its Officers shall apply these rules of eligibility in a fair and impartial manner.

3.3 Expulsion of Members. A Member may be expelled from the Corporation for good cause. Good cause shall include but not be limited to nonpayment of dues, failure to attend at least one Member or Officer meeting per year, and noncompliance with eligibility requirements. Prior to taking action on expulsion of a Member, the Board of Directors shall investigate the reasons for such expulsion, and shall conduct a hearing upon fifteen days prior written notice to the Member, which notice shall state the grounds for expulsion (or may in the sole discretion of the hearing body place the Member on probationary status subject to required or recommended remedial action as stated in the notice). The Member may be represented at the hearing by counsel and shall be entitled to present evidence as to why the Member should not be expelled; otherwise attendance at the hearing shall be limited to the Member, Officers, and their legal representatives, and the witnesses (who may be sequestered at the direction of the Board). The decision rendered to the Member shall be in writing and shall be final.
